RICHMOND HAS FOUR DAYS LEFT TO BUY OUT DUNNIE

SPORTS

FRANCHISE MAY BE LOST

CASH TO BUY OUT DUNNIE
MUST BE RAISED AT ONCE

Board of Directors Have Four Days to Exercise Option—Stock Offered Cheap.

Capital necessary to put the control of the Richmond Internationals in local hands has not yet been raised. The option on the holdings of Jack Dunn will expire in four days, and as this interest must be bought in order to keep the franchise here, there is a possibility that this city will lose its team. The amount needed to swing the deal is $10,000.

This information came directly from a member of the board of directors of the Internationals, who said this week the board agreed to purchase the interest of Jack Dunn, who owns 51 percent of the capital stock. Dunn will sacrifice his interests in order to get back to Baltimore, and his interest can be purchased at 50 cents on the dollar.

The directors are considerably worried over the impossibility of so easily getting to go out and get $10,000 within such a short time. That amount could easily be raised if the business men of Richmond realize the situation and believe that it is necessary to help the team.

That the next season will be a winning one is not as certain as it was painted, and had all cities done their best, the Blues would have a handsome profit during the new season. Unfortunately, the drawing power of the team on the road was not as good as at home owing to lack of interest in the game in other cities, and the Richmond Excursion Company, which handles the small end of the hole, has every reason to believe that this money was an investment in the future, considerable sums being put into players and improvements in the local park. The company also owns one-seventh of the Newark franchise.

With the baseball well out of the picture, the game will pay well this coming season, if the local clubs can find the enthusiasm to help the team, and can take care of the crowd of rovers that is sure to be on hand.

Yankees Get Lee Magee

NEW YORK, January 14.—New York American League Club to-night closed a deal with Harry Stuhmeyer, who has charge of many of the Federal League players for Lee Magee, formerly manager of the Brooklyn Federal League Club, and a star player in that league.

NORFOLK BLUES TO PLAY HOWITZERS HERE TO-NIGHT

Two Crack Artillery Quints Will Battle on Local Court—Wigwaggers Play Reserves.

The Richmond Howitzers quint will play the Norfolk Blues to-night at the armory on North Eighth Street. The game, which will be preceded by two fast preliminaries, will start at 8 o'clock.

The Blues have practically the same team that tied up the State championship last year with the Lynchburg, M. C., and the locals realize that they have a hard fight on their hands. The Howitzers' jinx has been hanging over them since the beginning, and the cannoneers are determined to shake him at once. They have one of the best quints ever gotten together in the history of the game, and the necessary teamwork to win. The team has shown some pep and still has a kick that somebody will feel before the season is over. A draw will be decided by the Norfolk team after the game.

The Junior Scholastics and Chimborazo quints will play a preliminary game beginning at 7:45 o'clock.

W.H. Play Signal Corps.
The Howitzer Reserves and Signal Corps quints of the Military League, all right, will begin at the Armory beginning at 8 o'clock. The Cannoneers defeated the Signalmen earlier in the season by a close score, and the latter are out to hand back the honor.

W.H. Play at Howitzers.
The game to-night between the pair-mom Reserves and the Howitzers' third team has been transferred from the McGuire's court to the Howitzers' court. This was done because the Howitzers have the best record, and can take care of the crowd of rovers that is sure to be on hand.
